Boulogne-sur-Mer & Auchan, France.

As a result of requests in our Annual Members Questionnaire and following our hugely successful and popular, first adventure to the Continent? We have arranged another day excursion to the beautiful and ever popular French City of Boulogne-sur-Mer, which offers a delightful mix of history, coastal charm, and authentic French atmosphere – making it an ideal destination for a memorable day trip. Wander down towards the bustling harbour, where fishing boats and yachts bring the waterfront to life. Boulogne-sur-Mer, has long been one of France's most important fishing ports, and its maritime heritage is everywhere – from the lively fish market to the fresh seafood menus lining the quay. Stopping for lunch is a must – think moules marinières, freshly caught fish, or a classic French plat du jour paired with a crisp glass of wine. Alternatively, take a relaxing walk along the beach and promenade. The long stretch of sand and sea air provide the perfect way to unwind. On a clear day, you might even catch a glimpse of the English coast across the water. Boulogne-sur-Mer combines culture, cuisine, and coastal beauty in one easy trip. Whether you're exploring the Old Town and its historic streets, enjoying fresh seafood, or simply soaking up the seaside atmosphere, it's a destination that offers a refreshing taste of France in just a day. You may wish to visit one of France's top visitor attractions, namely, the Nausicaa Aquarium, the biggest Aquarium in Europe. Finally to round of our day we have included a visit to the Auchan Hypermarket so you can treat yourself to some very special French treats and bargains. We will be travelling with Le Shuttle trains both ways for our channel crossing with the opportunity to visit the Coquelles Terminal facilities, shops and café's. It will be a long day but it will be worthwhile, we can assure you.
